IU FACULTY OF ECONOMICS INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

Presentation	Faculty of Economics is the oldest institution in its field, representing the first independent school on economics in Turkey. It was founded on 14 December 1936 upon Ataturk's directives. Faculty of Economics, established when not many Western countries had separate economics faculties, has had more than 45.000 graduates since its establishment. By education and research activities, it continues to contribute to Turkish social and economic life. Faculty of Economics Presentation Video

COURSE INFORMATION

Language of Instruction

IU Faculty of Economics offers instruction in two languages: Turkish and English. Incoming students are required to have sufficient language skills (minimum B1 for undergraduate students and B2 for graduate students) in at least one of the two languages to study here.

Course Catalogue

Information about courses can be found in IU Education Information System.

Our incoming students are expected to design their learning agreement mainly from the courses offered by the Faculty. They are also allowed to choose two courses from any faculty of IU as long as the courses are not overlapping.
